To assist your planning, please note the following information:

1. The Civil Rights course has Constitutional Law I and II as prerequisites.

2. A student wishing to do an independent study as a means of satisfying the upper-class writing requirement and the requirement of the Labor and Employment Concentration must have the paper approved by Professor Weatherspoon, even though the paper is being written for a professor in another course. Upper-class writing may only be done under the supervision of a full-time professor.
