Please be sure to read e-mails from me starting now through the end of the semester, as they will convey vital course information. Spoiler alert: Jurisdiction in intrinsically challenging!

600 A	Contracts A	Cordray	CONTRACTS: A CONTEMPORARY APPROACH, 2d ed., by Christina L. Kunz and Carol L. Chomsky (ISBN 978-0314283078). Note: You are welcome to buy a used book. Although a new book comes with access to an online "ebook" version, you will not need the on-line materials for this class (so you do not need to purchase on-line access if you buy a used book). Suggested supplement (optional): UNDERSTANDING CONTRACTS, 2d ed., by Jeff Ferriell (ISBN 978-1422429624). Note: The casebook presents the material you need to learn primarily through cases. In contrast, UNDERSTANDING CONTRACTS is a treatise that presents the material in a more descriptive way. In practice, lawyers use treatises to get an overview of the law before they begin their research on a specific topic. Similarly, reading about a topic in UNDERSTANDING CONTRACTS before you read the assigned pages in the casebook will help you place the material in context as you read the cases and prepare for class.

I think it will be: Burton & Eisenberg, Contract Law, Selected Source Materials Annotated (2014 edition) ISBN-13: 978-1628100617
