

Community Forum on Youth Justice

April 15, 2015

Agenda

8:00a—8:45a: Check in and continental breakfast

9:00a—10:20a: Panel presentation on Ohio court-based initiatives

Judge Theresa Dellick, Mahoning County Juvenile Court

Magistrate Richard N. White, Chief Magistrate, Mahoning County Juvenile Court

Keysha L. Myers, Cognitive Behavioral Therapist and Case Manager, Summit County Juvenile Court

Rachelle S. Randolph, Juvenile Restorative Justice Diversion Coordinator, Franklin County Juvenile Court

10:20a-10:30a: Break and move to breakout sessions

- Please be sure to take all personal belongings, coffee, water, and food with you. You will be released directly from the breakout sessions and will not return to the plenary session room.
- Please follow your breakout session moderator (announced at the end of the panel presentation) to your breakout session or use the map in your materials.

10:30a-12:00p: Breakout sessions

Trauma and Brain Development, Student Union, Schneider South Room

Dr. Fred Butcher, Research Associate, Begun Center for Violence Prevention Research and Education at Case Western Reserve University

School Discipline, Learning Center, Room 02 (basement level)

Sarah Biehl, Policy Director, Children's Defense Fund Ohio

Procedural Justice in Juvenile Court, Battelle Hall, Room 115

Rebecca Steele, Juvenile Attorney, Franklin County Public Defender

Youth & Law Enforcement, Blackmore Library, Room 110

Erin Davies, Executive Director, Juvenile Justice Coalition

Napoleon Bell II, Executive Director, Columbus Community Relations Commission

Thank you for attending the Community Forum on Youth Justice!

For any follow up questions or concerns, please contact Melissa Lindsay at 614.236.7312 or mlindsay@law.capital.edu

