<sup>1</sup> Online means that your class in general will meet synchronously over Zoom as it currently appears on the schedule. Your professors may also assign asynchronous work where your professors provide materials for reading, lectures for viewing, and assignments for completing. Students then have the ability to access and complete the assignments within a time frame set by the professor.

<sup>2</sup> Hybrid means that your class will have both in-person and remote learning elements, with the frequency of in-person learning based on pedagogical needs. While the frequency of in-person class meetings may vary by course, those meetings will take place as it currently appears on the schedule. Any in-person instruction will be consistent with applicable physical distancing, PPE guidelines, and other health and safety protocols. Your professors will be able to answer specific questions about their courses soon. Please review all communications from your professors carefully

SPRING 2021 COURSE SCHEDULE

January 4, 2021

Classes Begin January 11, 2021

Hybrid  942-1                  Family and Youth Advocacy                  Clinic (1cr-2cr)                  Tuesday (11:00am-1:55pm)                  Goldson                  R. A109	During the first four weeks of the semester, new students will meet for three hours as a class for orientation on Tuesdays. Once they have completed the orientation, students will spend three (3) hours per credit hour per week in the clinic doing a combination of clinical work, research, community outreach and case round meetings (one hour group meetings that will take place at a set time every week after orientation). Second semester students are no required to attend the orientation classes and may begin their clinic hours immediately. Clinic hours for all students will be scheduled based upon a combination of clinic needs and student availability. If you have questions about this course, you may contact Professor Jennifer Goldson at jgoldson@law.capital.edu.
Cancelled  941-1  Mediation Clinic (3 cr)  Wednesday (5:30pm-6:00pm)  Wheeler                  R. 572	The professor will contact students prior to the first week of class to schedule two class meetings. The professor will attempt to schedule the two classes at a time convenient to all parties. The first class meeting, which will be held at the law school, will involve a review of the course syllabus along with other course forms and a skills review using mock mediations. This first meeting is usually 3-4 hours in length. The second class meeting will be held at the Franklin County Municipal Court so students can meet the staff of the small claims court and the prosecutor's office as well as the magistrates of the small claims court. Most of the remainder of "class time" will be spent at the municipal court conducting and/or observing mediations. Students may also have opportunities to observe mediations at other locations such as the Ohio Civil Rights Commission and the Franklin County Domestic Relations Court Mediation Program. If you have questions about this course, you may contact Professor Terry Wheeler at twheeler@law.capital.edu
